

An invitation...

to view Cardiff's newest, personal and team development facilities

Based in central Cardiff, Boulders Corporate now offers a unique venue to training providers delivering personal and team development.

boulders
peak performance

Combining the facilities of Wales' largest indoor climbing centre with a specially-developed range of proven, physical activities provides a powerful learning vehicle for you to unlock the potential of people and maximise their performance focusing on generating the crucial evidence of key skills attainment

To preview the new corporate facilities at Boulders, register for our corporate open day.

Thursday 11th February 2010, 4pm

An exclusive chance to see firsthand the excellent quality and competitively priced corporate packages, this invitation allows you to experience an exclusive demonstration of activities that will enhance your training portfolio.

Looking for an exciting and highly-effective training day venue? Boulders' offers an adrenaline- packed opportunity to get your clients motivated about training during these difficult times and increase employee engagement. Wouldn't it be good to offer your clients something new?

Places are limited so register online today

boulders-climbing.com/registration

Contact Rebecca Hawkins: Rebecca@boulders-climbing.com 02920 434959 | 0845 52 118 50